

Academic Programme

Suited to

Course Details

Masters (MCh) in Surgical Science and Practice

Professor Oscar Traynor

Professor of Postgraduate Surgical Education, Surgical Affairs RCSI

Dr Marie Morris

Senior Lecturer in Postgraduate Surgical Education, Surgical Affairs RCSI

- Medical Graduates
- Pre/Post Interns

Interested in:

- Pursuing a career in surgery
- Increasing competitiveness for entry to surgical residency training anywhere in the world

- Full-time programme - 1 year
- Face-to-face delivery in RCSI, Dublin

Master (MCh) of Surgery by Module

Professor John O'Byrne

Programme Director, Surgical Affairs RCSI

- Interns
- Surgeons in Training (CST)
- NCHD's (both national and international surgeons working in Ireland)

Interested in:

- Pursuing a career in surgery
- Career development

- Full-time programme - 1 year
- Part-time programme - 2 years
- Blended delivery (online and small element onsite in RCSI, Dublin)

PgDip/MSc in Human Factors in Patient Safety

Dr Eva Doherty

Director of Human Factors in Patient Safety, Surgical Affairs RCSI

Dr Angela, O'Dea

Senior Lecturer in Surgical Education, Surgical Affairs RCSI

- All healthcare professionals involved in the care of acute hospital patients (minimum 2 years' experience working in a clinical setting)

Interested in:

- Making care safer
- Understanding the science of Human Factors
- Career development

- Part-time programme
- PgDip - 1 year
- Masters - 2 years
- Online delivery

PgCert in ENT Skills for Primary Care

Professor Camilla Carroll

National Lead in ENT Education in Primary Care, Surgical Affairs RCSI

Healthcare professionals working in primary care, including:

- General Practitioners (GP's)
- Practice Nurses
- Public Health Doctors and Nurses
- Audiologists
- Registrars (NCHD's)

Interested in:

- ENT/ENT Skills
- Career development

- Part-time programme - 1 year
- Blended delivery (with online and face-to-face sessions)

MSc in Advanced Clinical Practice

Professor John O'Byrne

Programme Director, Surgical Affairs RCSI

- Interns
- Non-surgical trainees
- Non-surgical NCHD's (both national and international physicians working in Ireland)

Interested in:

- Pursuing a career in healthcare
- Career development

- Full-time programme - 1 year
- Part-time programme - 2 years
- Blended delivery (online and a small element onsite in RCSI, Dublin)

At our Virtual Open Event, you will have the opportunity to:

- Learn more about our postgraduate academic programmes
- Talk with our team of Professors, Programme Directors, and Programme Lecturers
- Discuss any queries you may have about the programmes
- Find out more about the application process before applying

